

Because you can

Christina Schilling, Camilla Gottschalck, Jonas Gladnikoff, Hera Björk & Örlygur Smári

Sometimes life is just a simple phrase
Waiting for a chance to embrace
It's strange how it turns
It feels good,
then it burns
Sometimes life is just one thought away
To reach you

Take the chance
You'll never know
Fly, release your inner glow
There is no-one in your way
Trust that you will be okay
Take the chance
Take your future by the hand

In every single minute of the day
There is something that could lead you all the way
Look for the signs,
Hidden in between the lines
In every single mind there is a place called heaven

Take the chance
You'll never know
Fly, release your inner glow
There is no-one in your way
Trust that you will be okay
Take the chance,
Take your future by the hand
Because you can!

Take the chance
You'll never know
Why don't you fly
Release your inner glow

There is no-one in your way
Trust that you will be okay
Take the chance,
Take your future by the hand
Because you can!
